

A Glorious Example to the State.

We find in the treatment of the colored people of the State, in which a great victory has been gained for the cause of justice, a glorious example to the State. We find in the treatment of the colored people of the State, in which a great victory has been gained for the cause of justice, a glorious example to the State. We find in the treatment of the colored people of the State, in which a great victory has been gained for the cause of justice, a glorious example to the State.

Of all white-washed people, those of Laurens are the vilest. They have not only been the most violent in their treatment of the colored people, but they have also been the most hypocritical. They have not only been the most violent in their treatment of the colored people, but they have also been the most hypocritical. They have not only been the most violent in their treatment of the colored people, but they have also been the most hypocritical.

The courage in politics needed upon all the industries of the country. All those who are engaged in any of the various occupations of the State, should be reminded of the fact that no excesses are to be tolerated.

The courage in politics needed upon all the industries of the country. All those who are engaged in any of the various occupations of the State, should be reminded of the fact that no excesses are to be tolerated.

The courage in politics needed upon all the industries of the country. All those who are engaged in any of the various occupations of the State, should be reminded of the fact that no excesses are to be tolerated.

Clipped By:

ottg

Tue, Jan 24, 2017